Dear Parents,

Information technology is now very common and its use in education field is becoming progressively mature. Our school has joined the most up-to-date programme by EVI children's education website as a way to support students in their daily education at school. EVI Services Limited also provides a provides a parent-child website ("Parent-Child Paradise ") for whole school students. Through a variety of beneficial, interactive game and articles for parents, parents can help their children with learning at home. It also allows every family to enjoy a fun time together and develop their children's unlimited potential. Your child's user account number and password is enclosed and it is effective immediately. If you have any questions regarding this website, please contact EVI Services Limited's Customer Service Department at 21140333.

Yours sincerely,

Chu Fung Chiu
